

A lecture by

Máire Ní Annracháin

(with Iain Mac an Tàilleir Sabhal Mór Ostaig, Isle of Skye.)

entitled

‘Scottish Gaelic and Irish speakers: linguistic and political challenges’

Room 14, Daedalus Building
Applied Languages Centre
Belfield
University College Dublin
Friday, 15th June
8pm

Dr Máire Ní Annracháin is Senior Lecturer in the School of Irish, National University of Ireland, Maynooth. She has a long-standing interest in the connections between Gaelic Ireland and Gaelic Scotland and has published widely on the literatures of each, including a monograph on the Scottish Gaelic poet Sorely Maclean.